"You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit – fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name."

John 15:16

What a promise! First we are chosen and then we are blessed by God's hand. Jesus longs for us to live with Him and in Him in every way. We need to take hold of this truth and recognise that we have the gift of abundant life when we walk in it.

As women, we can sometimes feel reluctant to believe that we have indeed been chosen by God for relationship and a purpose; that we are loved and known by God for we are uniquely made and gifted

We want to invite you to come and explore this subject with us at our Spring Conference with

Michele Guinness

Brought up in a practising Jewish family, and married to a Church of England minister who is a great, great grandson of Arthur Guinness, the famous brewer, Michele Guinness worked in the UK media for many years, presenting her own daily lunchtime programme on BBC local radio. She went on to become Head of Communications for the National Health Service in Cumbria and Lancashire, but is now concentrating on writing and speaking.

She has written eleven best-selling books, including, "Chosen" (Monarch), her autobiography, "The Heavenly Party" (Monarch), a resource book on celebration, full of ideas and recipes, and a biography of the Guinness family.

Michele is a great communicator who brings to life her wonderful story and insights into womanhood. Visit her on her website at www.micheleguinness.co.uk
